JOURNAL OF GLACIOLOGY, PROOFS & ORDER FORM

Note: Essential alterations only should be made to the proofs. NO new material should be inserted unless you are prepared to bear the cost (equivalent to the page-charge rate for each page or part of page changed). We reserve the right to assume the PROOFS are correct and will proceed with publication if we do not receive a reply after 7 days.

GOLD OPEN ACCESS: As an alternative to conventional page charges, Gold Open Access (including Creative Commons Attribution licensing) is offered to Journal of Glaciology authors for a flat fee of £2300, irrespective of the paper's length.

PAGE CHARGES: For Journal of Glaciology authors not choosing Gold Open Access, page charges are mandatory, and are assessed at a flat rate of £90 per final proof page.

Accepted manuscripts will be published on receipt of page charges. Accepted manuscripts that cannot fulfil payment of Gold Open Access or page charges may be considered for publication at the discretion of the IGS, and based on considerations of specific circumstances. Authors who anticipate requiring financial assistance to help cover page charges are encouraged to alert the Secretary General as early as possible. Decisions on whether to grant page-charge discounts and waivers will be made on a case-by-case basis. It is the IGS's intention to give preference to early-career and socio-economic hardship circumstances in determining when page-charge discounts and waivers are awarded. Authors who receive page-charge discounts or waivers are encouraged to acknowledge the financial assistance of the IGS in the Acknowledgement section of their paper.

OFFPRINTS: All authors can request an electronic (pdf) offprint of their paper via email. Authors interested in receiving printed offprints please contact the editorial office at journal@igsoc.org at the earliest opportunity.
